Community Spotlight

Outreach- Take Home Packets

To address barriers to local arts programs, the Extension Community Arts program developed 120 art packets centered on Hispanic Heritage Month, featuring Frida Kahlo-inspired activities. These free packets, distributed through local mom-and-pop stores throughout the county provided hands-on art activities and cultural education for families, seniors, and underserved populations. This initiative strengthened community connections and enabled families to engage in creative and culturally experiences. This simple yet impactful program promotes arts access and arts education.
